NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN that the Legislature of the state of Utah recognizes the immense contribution Wayne Owens made to the citizens of Utah and for his leadership qualities that inspired so many Utahns to hope for a better future and get involved to make the hope a reality.

BE IT FURTHER KNOWN that a copy of this citation be sent to the Wayne Owens Family and the members of Utah's congressional delegation.

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE JUDY ANN BUFFMIRE

Douglas Wayne Owens, born in Panguitch, Utah, where he first started his life long love and respect for politics. At 11 years of age, he spent his summer "chalking" campaign slogans all over town in support of Harry Truman's campaign for president. He never lost that passion for politics, his belief in our democracy and in our government.

I first met Wayne working on his 1972 congressional campaign when he walked 711 miles across Utah to meet with, talk to, and ask citizens he met along the way, for their vote. He was elected! He had a smile that just radiated. He was young, energetic and treated everyone with respect. His love of, and for, people was unconditional. He always believed that serving in our government was one of the most honored of professions, and he never blemished that profession in all of his years in government, in any way.

Wayne was a lawyer, a missionary, a loving father and husband, a courageous congressman, and a servant for peace. He was also a life long Democrat.

He and his wife, Marleen, were married in the Salt Lake LDS Temple and enjoyed 41 years of happiness together, in a true partnership. They had 5 children.

While in Congress, Wayne worked on the impeachment procedures and investigation of President Richard Nixon. He considered that the highlight of his career was during his first term when he and other freshmen congressmen helped force a vote that ended the Vietnam War. He ran for the Senate in 1974 and lost that election. He then served as Missionary President in the Canadian Montreal Mission for 3 years. He then ran again for Congress and was re-elected to his old House seat in 1986 and twice won re-election, by ever increasing margins.

He championed the cause for compensation to Utah downwinders who were ill from the fallout at the nuclear testing - he fought to preserve Utah Red Rock wilderness.

In 1992, he lost his second bid for the senate. He then co-founded, with his friend Danny Abraham, "The Center for Middle East Peace and Economic Development." He spent the next ten years trying to bring peace to that region making monthly trips to meet with leaders and to build bridges to peace in a cause bigger than himself. He died in that effort December 18, 2002, of an apparent heart attack while in Tel Aviv, Israel where he was just completing a 9 nation, peace seeking trip with several members of Congress.

Wayne spent his life and died that way - serving the four things he loved most: his church, his family, his country and his belief that peace could and must come to world. I know where ever he is - his smile will be lighting the sky and, according to Matthew 5, verse 9, if "peace makers shall be called the children of God", Wayne Owens will be among, if not leading, them with smiles, his energy and his devotion to peace.
